Whether you are a business traveller or you are looking to embark on the adventure of a lifetime, host a meritorious conference or simply bask under the sun, you are sure to find the hotel you are looking for within The Medotels Group.

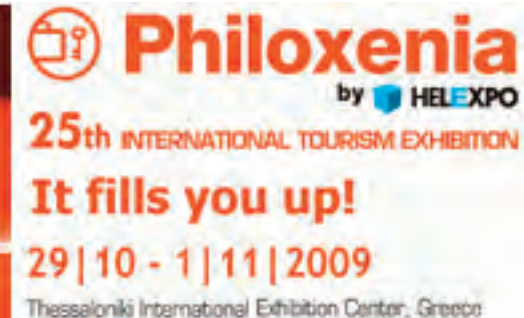

The Anemi Hotel Apartments offer an oasis of serenity, comfort and style to provide you with a destination you will want to visit again and again. Remodeled to recreate the style and panache of a chic, boutique hotel whilst still retaining the comfort and ease of a family-run establishment. Ideal for young couples to whom style and taste are key elements to any holiday, through to the family with children who require a full range of easily accessible facilities, and the additional benefit of Wi-fi throughout the Hotel.

The foyer, restaurant and bar area are in a contemporary style which combines dark woods with glass, brushed metals and stylish accessories, providing a comfortable environment for any occasion. Our 25 studios and 65 one bedroom apartments have been either refurbished or redesigned to an exceptional standard. Superior rooms with sleek ceramic hobs, contemporary crockery, elegant soft furnishings and wall mounted flat screens offer comfort with a twist of chic style. The Anemi offers attractive sun terraces with ample sun beds and a large swimming pool.

Despite the boutique style of the Anemi Hotel Apartments, customers are still getting the very same great value holidays, ideally located in Kato Paphos, close to sandy beaches, pubs, restaurants, local historic sites and water sports activities.

Venue: Helexpo / Thessaloniki / Greece

The International Tourism Exhibition Philoxenia is a major event in south – east Europe and Mediterranean area for the tourism market. This area, with a faster than average growing rate in incoming (and outbound) tourism, is becoming a “sine qua non” element for the portfolio of every travel agent. The current economic crisis has reduced these rates but 2010 is forecasted to “get back to normal”.

Greece is not the only player - many new rising destinations from the region showcase their best, from Serbia and Czech Republic to Turkey and Tunisia, and Russia to Jordan, tourism organizations and enterprises display the widest range of tourism products – all the emerging markets of this part of the world are concentrated in a 4 day productive show that you can’t afford to miss!

Philoxenia (meaning “hospitality” in Greek language) takes place every November, in the International Exhibition Center of Helexpo at Thessaloniki city, in Northern Greece, just 30 minutes flight from Athens.

Philoxenia’s objective goal is not only to reinforce and enhance the presence and image of its exhibitors in the Greek and international market, but also to bring about direct and measurable benefits for all participants.

To ensure positive effects for all exhibitors, a hosted buyers program (from 30 countries in 2008) is in effect, while a series of parallel events offer insights to a region of great potential.
